

This aerial map displays a coastal region with various land uses, including residential areas, commercial zones, and green spaces. Eleven specific locations are highlighted with red boxes and numbered 1 through 11. The locations are distributed across the map, with a concentration in the upper right quadrant and a few scattered along the coast and river. The map also shows a large body of water on the right side, a river or inlet in the center, and a coastline on the left.